

With the installation of another custom designed natural gas fired heating furnace, Crucible Industries has completed Phase I of its furnace modernization plan. Using state of the art burner systems, these highly efficient furnaces will improve productivity and quality of all products rolled on Crucible's 12" Mill. Phase II is scheduled to be completed in 2013.